Adventure Camp

New experiences, skill-building, a sense of community and friendship are all part of Adventure Camp. Summer camp at the Y invites youth to be inspired through creative play, sports and more. It is an opportunity for youth to stay engaged socially and academically. Each week features a unique theme with fun-filled activities. Days will be filled with fun camp activities to engage brains, exploration rotations to encourage kids to try new things, and plenty of physical activity and games to keep bodies active. Campers will have the opportunity to develop friendships and interact with others while following safety protocols. Campers are divided into age-appropriate groups with activities appropriate to the interests and needs of each group.
